

Looking into your eyes, looking into your heart Patr

ocinio, we see and read the simply and noble personality of a woman, sister and mother, strong in humility, courageous and delicate. In your intercession colored by the blood of martyrdom, we place all sisters especially those who accompany the formation of others in the first stages of claretian journey.

Her liturgical Memory is celebrated on November 13.